PROSPECTUS FOR ADMISSION TO THE POST GRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMME IN THE COLLEGE (AFFILIATED TO THE UNIVERSITY OF KERALA) FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2021-22.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Prospectus for admission to the Post graduate degree programme in the College for the academic year 2021-2022, as approved by the College Council in concurrence with the prospectus released by University of Kerala, is published herewith. It contains general information and rules relating to the admission to the Post Graduate degree programme in Govt. aided affiliated Colleges of the University of Kerala.

1.2 The prospectus issued during the previous years for admission to Post Graduate Degree Programmes is not valid for the year 2021-2022.

1.3 Admissions to the seats to be filled by the University to the Post Graduate Degree Programmes (except those specifically mentioned) are regulated on the basis of marks obtained in the qualifying examination. The details of seats to which admissions are made, through the rank list prepared accordingly are contained in the relevant paragraphs.

1.4 Statute 19 (3) of Chapter 24 of the KUFS 1977 which states that ‘no student shall be admitted to any course of instruction in the Colleges in anticipation of Affiliation’, shall be strictly adhered by the College.

1.5 Statute 31 of Chapter 24 of the KUFS 1977 which states that ‘Admission of students to the College shall be subject to the conditions prescribed by the University and the strength of each class or subjects shall not exceed the maximum for the class or subject sanctioned by the Syndicate’ shall be strictly adhered by the Colleges.

1.6 Authority to prescribe qualification for admission to the various courses of studies.

According to Sub-Section (v) and (vi) of Section 25 of the Kerala University Act, 1974, the Academic Council shall have the power to prescribe qualifications for admission of students to the various courses of study (and to the Examinations) and the conditions under which exemptions shall be granted, and to make provision for the admission of students to the various courses of studies on the basis of merit in order to maintain the standards of education.

1.7 Agreement for Direct Payment -Relevant provisions for admission to the various courses in Aided colleges.

Article 18 of the Agreement for Direct Payment entered into between the Government and the Educational Agencies of Private Colleges stipulates that all future admission of students to the Private affiliated colleges shall be on the following basis, viz., a) Twenty percent of the total number of seats in each college under the Educational Agency shall be reserved for students belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. Those seats which cannot be filled on this basis shall be filled on the basis of merit from among backward minority communities, in case the college is run by a backward minority community and from among OBCs, in all other cases. b) Twenty percent of the seats shall be reserved for the candidates belonging to the community (Ezhava, Ezhavas, Thiyyas, Billava, Izhuvan, Illuvan, Ishuvan community) to which the college belongs. These seats will be filled strictly on the basis of merit from among the students of the said community. c) Forty percent of the seats will be filled by open selection on the basis of merit. d) The remaining seats will be filled by the Educational Agency by candidates of their choice, observing the prescribed eligibility condition.

2. GENERAL INFORMATION

The admission to the Post Graduate Degree Programmes were made on the basis of Online Centralized Allotment by University of Kerala. The Online Allotment process will provide the candidates, opportunity of obtaining admission to the College to any Post graduate programmes of his/her choice on the basis of merit. From the academic year 2020-21 onwards, University has also introduced 8 Innovative programmes in various Govt/ Aided Colleges. The admissions to these programmes are also through Centralized allotment process. MSc Chemistry with application in drug design and technology is the new programme introduced 2020 onwards. 4.6 General Rules for conversion of vacant seats

If sufficient candidates are not available for filling the seats reserved for SC/ST candidates in, the same will be notified in the media three times (on three different dates) and a separate allotment for SC/ST candidates will be made by the University. However, even after this, if SC/ST seats are still vacant, same will be filled as per the following norms.

1. The vacant SC/ST seats if any, will be filled by admitting candidates belonging to Socially and Educationally Backward Communities (SEBC), strictly in accordance with the rules and guidelines for admission. The seats that still remain un-filled will go to the General Merit Quota.

2. The vacant SC/ST seats if any, in Backward Aided colleges with Minority Status will be filled by admitting candidates from the Community Quota Ranklist of the colleges, strictly in accordance with the rules and guidelines for admission.

5. CLAIMS FOR MANDATORY RESERVATION AND CERTIFICATES TO BE PRODUCED

(i) Claims for Mandatory Reservation must be made by a candidate at the time of submission of online application. Candidates should mention their claim in the relevant columns in the Personal and Data Sheet. They should also satisfy the eligibility conditions as per the Prospectus (Clause 6) at the time of online registration.

(ii) Candidates should produce all original documents to prove their claims made in the online application form at the time of admission before the Principal. Claims that are not mentioned at the time of submission of online application will not be entertained even if supporting evidences are produced later on. The claims for mandatory reservation once made cannot be altered by the candidate under any circumstances.

5.1 Claim for reservation under Scheduled Castes (SC) / Scheduled Tribes (ST) quota.

Candidates belonging to SC/ST communities allotted against merit seats or against the seats reserved for them are exempted from payment of fee at the time of admission. Candidates claiming reservation under Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes quota should obtain the Caste/Community Certificate from the Village Officer/Tahsildar. (See Annexure II and Annexure III for list of SC and ST). The validity of caste certificate of SC/ST is three years. Warning: Those who produce false SC/ST Certificate for claiming reservation under SC/ST quota shall be liable for penalties as per rules. 9. ONLINE CENTRALIZED ALLOTMENT PROCESS

9.1 Trial Allotment

A trial allotment will be published before the closure of registration in the profile of the candidate, to give an idea about the chances of getting admission to a Programme at a particular college, based on the options registered by the candidate. The trial allotment does not guarantee admission to the candidate.

9.2 First Allotment

After the trial allotment and the period earmarked for revising options, the first allotment will be published in the website on the date to be notified. Candidates can check the details of allotment in the “Allotment” link provided in their profile. The candidates who get allotment have to remit the University fee as per the procedure mentioned in clause 8.3 of University prospectus and ensure their seat, and those who fail to remit the fee in time will not be considered for further allotments. The candidates will have to follow the notification of the University with regard to the date of admission in the college concerned.

9.3 Fee to be paid to the University on allotment.

On securing allotment, the candidates have to remit the University admission fee mentioned in clause 9 of University prospectus through online mode (e-payment) only in the ‘Allotment’ page of valid applicant’s homepage in the website (<http://admissions.keralauniversity.ac.in>). A printout of the payment receipt should be taken and the same should be kept safely and be submitted to the Principal at the time of admission. The candidate without the payment receipt will not be allowed to join the college. The candidates should keep a copy of the payment receipt. It will be required for further allotments, if any.

Candidates SHALL NOT remit the fee in any other form like Demand Draft, Cheque, Chalan etc. Those candidates who do not remit the University admission fee on or before the date specified will lose their current allotment and will not be considered for further allotments.

9.4 Cancellation/Activation of options after the first allotment:

Candidates who remit the fee after first allotment within the prescribed time will have the facility to cancel/activate their higher options before the second allotment during a specified period which will be notified.

9.4.1 After the first allotment, the options below the ‘allotted one’ of the candidate will automatically be removed from the option list of the candidate. For example, if a candidate had registered 20 options in all, and if he/she is allotted to his/her 10th option, all options from 11 to 20 will be automatically removed from the option list. Options from 1 to 9 will remain valid and will be considered for future allotments. He/she may cancel/activate any options among the remaining options as per his/her choice. But the candidate will not be permitted to register any fresh options to the existing ones.

9.4.2 Existing options registered by the candidate, available in the Home Page, can be cancelled one by one by clicking the “CANCEL” button shown against each option or all higher options can be cancelled by clicking “CANCEL ALL HIGHER OPTIONS” button, if the candidate desires so. Option once cancelled can be activated again using “ACTIVATE” button, within a specified time period.

9.4.3 If a candidate is satisfied with an allotment and does not want to be considered again for further allotment(s), he/she must cancel all the remaining higher options. A candidate retaining all or any of his/her higher options after an allotment, is bound to accept the new allotment, if any, failing which, he/she will lose the existing allotment as well as the new allotment; moreover he/she will not be considered for any further allotments.

9.4.4 The facility for cancellation/activation of options will be available during the notified period only.

9.5 Second Allotment and Remittance of Fee.

The second allotment list will be published on the date to be notified. A candidate who gets an allotment at any stage will have to remit the prescribed fee for the course allotted, through the method specified in Clause 8.3 of University prospectus.

9.6 Downloading Allotment memo.

After the second allotment, candidates can Login to their homepage using their application number and password for downloading the memo (Allotment memo can be downloaded only by those candidates who have remitted the University admission fee as per clause 8.3 of University prospectus). Using the link 'Allotment' the applicant can view his/her allotment details and can download the allotment memo which has to be produced before the Principal at the time of admission. The allotment memo will show the personal details, the college, the Programme to which the candidate is allotted and the date of reporting to the college for taking admission. It is advised to keep a copy of allotment memo with the candidate for future purpose if any. Allotment memo issued to a candidate for a particular allotment will not be issued again at a later stage under any circumstances.

9.7 Post Allotment Activities

9.7.1 Reporting at the College:

Allotted candidates have to report before the Principal/Head of the College/Institution concerned on the dates notified for admission, with the documents mentioned in clause 10 of University prospectus. Candidates can take temporary or permanent admission (See clause 8.9 of University prospectus)

9.7.2 Fee to be remitted in colleges at the time of admission:

The candidates should fulfill the eligibility criteria at the time of online registration and all relevant documents mentioned under clause 10 shall be submitted at the respective colleges during the time of admission.

9.7.4 Failure to report for Admission:

Candidates who do not take admission on the prescribed date and time in the allotted college will lose their admission and they will not be considered for further allotments.

9.7.5 Cancellation of Higher Options after joining a college:

Candidates who joined the college on the date specified, can either cancel their remaining options fully or partially or change the priority of their remaining options before the date specified as per the procedure specified in Clause 8.4 of University Prospectus. If not interested in any further allotments, all the higher options may be cancelled before the date specified, failing which, the options that remain valid will be considered for further allotments, if any.

9.8 Supplementary / Further allotments.

Candidates who get allotment in supplementary/further allotments shall follow the instructions given in clause 8.3, 8.4, 8.6 and 8.7 of University prospectus. Details regarding the procedures of supplementary allotments will be notified later. The candidates need to remit the University admission fee only once during this process of allotment which would confirm their seat in any of the colleges as per their preference and eligibility.

9.9 Temporary Admission.

Candidates can opt for temporary admission in colleges during thesecond allotment. They will be given an extended time for remitting the fee applicable to the programme / institution till the next allotment. Such candidates,

- Have to submit the original certificates and the receipt of University admission fee.
- They can choose whether to take temporary or permanent admission and the same need to be assured by the Principal. The admission, whether permanent / temporary will be given in the admit memo issued to the candidates.
- This provision is not applicable from 3rd allotment onwards and it is compulsory to take permanent admission in the college by remitting the requisite fee.
- If the candidate is satisfied with any of the allotments, he/she can take permanent admission by remitting the requisite fee.

10. FEE TO BE REMITTED FOR ADMISSION

Any candidate who get allotment / admission shall compulsorily remit the below mentioned fee structure for taking admission in the college.
